

On the cover

The French president, Emmanuel Macron, faces his first real test, page 50. His problems are more to do with presentation than policy: leader, page 11

• The best way out of the Brexit mess Parliament cannot agree on what kind of Brexit the people want. It should ask them: leader, page 12. If Parliament rejects Theresa May's Brexit deal with the European Union next week, the result could be anything from no deal to no Brexit, page 55. When it comes to a second referendum, the medium shapes the message, page 56

• China's petrified private sector High-flying private firms face an advance by the state: Schumpeter, page 67

• Revolution in Ethiopia A new prime minister promises freedom. Ethnic separatists could wreck his plans: leader, page 14. Ethiopia's new prime minister tries to allow liberty, but not anarchy, page 47

• Goodbye to George H.W. Bush The 41st president of the United States, died on November 30th: Obituary, page 86
